ANTI-BRIBERY AND ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

Bribery and Corruption

Ayfleks Packaging is firmly opposed to all forms of bribery and corruption. The offering or acceptance of a bribe, regardless of purpose, is strictly and unconditionally prohibited.

Business relationships must not be continued with third parties who seek to conduct business with Ayfleks Packaging through bribery or corrupt practices.

Gifts

A gift is an item of no monetary obligation, typically offered as a gesture of appreciation or professional courtesy by individuals or customers with whom a business relationship exists.

Any gift offered or given by Ayfleks Packaging to third parties must be offered openly, in good faith, and without conditions. The principles governing the gifts that may be given under this framework, along with the requirements for recording them, are set out in the Gift Acceptance and Giving Policy contained within the Ayfleks Packaging Code of Business Ethics.

Facilitation Payments

Individuals and organisations within the scope of this policy are prohibited from offering facilitation payments to government bodies in order to secure or expedite a routine transaction or process (such as obtaining permits, licences, or documents).

Donations

Political donations and charitable contributions that could influence, or could reasonably be perceived to influence, a decision in favour of Ayfleks Packaging are strictly prohibited. Any charitable donations or sponsorships made by the company must be carried out in accordance with company policies and applicable local laws. Personal charitable contributions made independently by Ayfleks Packaging employees, from their own funds and unrelated to their professional duties, fall outside the scope of our company policies; however, the principles set out in the Ayfleks Packaging Code of Business Ethics remain applicable in such cases.

Accurate Record-Keeping

The matters to which Ayfleks Packaging must adhere in relation to its accounting and record-keeping systems are governed by applicable legislation. Accordingly:

- All accounts, invoices, and documents relating to relationships with third parties (customers, suppliers, etc.) must be recorded and maintained in a complete, accurate, and reliable manner.
- Accounting or similar business records relating to any transaction must not be falsified or misrepresented in any way.

Training and Communication

This Policy has been communicated to all Ayfleks Packaging employees through training programmes and notice boards, and is continuously and readily accessible via the company website.
